Vs.

Mr.Rahul Kate for applicants.
Mr.Y.S.Shinde, APP for State.

CORAM: B.H.MARLAPALLE,J.

January 24, 2007.

P.C.

. Heard Mr.Kate, the learned counsel for the applicants who had approached the learned Sessions Judge in Criminal Bail Application No.7 of 2007. The said application has been rejected on 20/1/2007 and, therefore, this application for anticipatory bail.

. There is no dispute that the main accused Ajit Yadav has been granted bail on certain conditions by the learned Metropolitan Magistrate, First Class at Indapur on 18/1/2007. As per the FIR filed by the complainant, the present applicants were the relatives of the main accused Ajit Yadav who had accepted Rs.2,80,000/- for giving employment to four persons on charging consideration of Rs.1,00,000/- each. Thus the amount paid was by way of advance of Rs.70,000/- and when the complainant met Ajit Yadav, the applicants were present and they allegedly stated that Ajit is capable of helping the boys seeking employment and he would do so.

. There is no reason why these applicants should be denied the benefit of anticipatory bail when the main accused has already been released on bail by the learned Judicial Magistrate, First Class.

. Hence, this application is allowed and it is directed that in the event of arrest of any of the applicants in connection with C.R.No.6 of 2007 registered with Walchandnagar Police Station be released on bail on furnishing PR bond in the sum of Rs.3,000/- each and one solvent surety for the like amount in each case. It is further directed that each of the applicants shall report to the concerned police station once in a week as per the time given by the I.O. till the investigation is complete.
